

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF YOUNG LAWYERS

aija
52ND CONGRESS
PRAGUE 2014

AIJA, International Association of Young Lawyers, is the only global association devoted to lawyers and in-house counsel aged 45 and under. Through a wide range of meetings, seminars, law courses and advocacy, AIJA promotes professional cooperation and friendship among young career-building legal professionals on an international stage. AIJA provides a genuine and friendly networking platform for the next generation of big ticket lawyers in a qualitative scientific environment.

AIJA is delighted to be hosting its 52nd Annual Congress in Prague, Czech Republic, on 26-30 August 2014. This event will bring over 600 lawyers from around the world to unique Prague. This will undoubtedly provide an outstanding opportunity to gain exposure to international legal professionals from around the globe in one location in Central Europe.

This year's Congress will be held at the prestigious Intercontinental Hotel. Located on Prague's most famous boulevard "Pařížská", connecting the historical Old Town Square with the banks of the Vltava River, the InterContinental Prague provides the perfect base to explore the architectural treasures, shops and restaurants that give this region its distinctive character. High quality meeting facilities will make the Congress sessions even more enjoyable and interesting.

The days will be filled with seminars and meetings, working sessions and workshops of lawyers around numerous topics related to the Commissions of AIJA including: Antitrust, Banking, Finance and Capital Markets Law, Commercial Fraud, Corporate Acquisition & Joint Ventures, Corporate Counsel, Distribution Law, Environmental Law, Human and Procedural Rights and Responsibilities, Insolvency Law, International Arbitration, International Business Law, Labour Law, Litigation, Private Clients, Real Estate Law, Skills, Career, Innovation, Leadership and Learning, Tax Law, Technology, Media and Intellectual Property, Telecommunication and Energy and Transport Law. In addition interspersing the professional activities throughout the week will be social events culminating in the traditional black tie gala which this year will be held in the Obecní dům, the beautiful Art Nouveau Municipal House.

These many events provide numerous possibilities and unique opportunities to feature your products, services and/or brand. A very active social life is part of the unique AIJA "spirit" and the program offers multiple entertainment events allowing guests to relax, have fun and network in a friendly environment.
